Preferred citation: The Hudson Area Library (HAL) Oral History Project collection, Hudson Area Library History Room, Hudson N.Y.

Acquisition information: Materials are the property of the Hudson Area Library. The oral histories were created by participants in an oral history workshop with Oral History Summer School led by Founder and Director Suzanne Snider, with assistance from Melinda Braathen. Contract and volunteer community members collected oral histories on the library's behalf.

Accruals: New materials will be added to the collection as oral histories are produced under the direction of the library's Director and History Room Coordinator.

Custodial history: All materials are stored in archival boxes. All audio/video materials were recorded digitally.

Processing information: The collection was processed by members of the History Room Committee and library staff.

Historical Note

This oral history project was a broad based program undertaken to collect oral histories that would reflect and add to the library's local history resources. The audio portion of the collection contains interviews of people from the greater Hudson area collected by participants in the library's 2013 oral history workshop offered in collaboration with Oral History Summer School (OHSS), as well as by OHSS staff and alum contracted by the library to collect life stories of community members. Oral histories continue to be collected both by the Hudson Area Library staff.

The interviews were conducted by Melinda Braathen, John Craig, Jenny Goldberg, Inge Lincoln, Alanna Medlock, Maija Reed, Suzanne Snider, Katharine Umsted, and Robyn Waters.

Scope and Content Note

The HAL Oral History Project collection consists of digital summaries and audio recordings conducted by various individuals with residents of the City of Hudson, N.Y from April 2013 to 2020. The interviewees were Dorothy and Ralph Avery; Leo Bower; John Brodowski; Carmine Ciancetta; Rich Conaty; Joseph D'Onofrio; Mary Hallenbeck; Norma Hart; Suzanna Koski-Cincotti; Arthur Kowee; Kathryn McDonald; Hazel Murray; Nguyen Tasha; Carolyn Russo; Art Smith; Viola Williams.
